

*the 1947
caps and capes*

• the year 1947

... a memorable year in the lives of all students of Charity Hospital School of Nursing. That these memories may not soon fade and with the hope that this book may help you to relive them, we of the Senior Class present the 1947 Caps and Capes.

dedication . . ---

Because she is truly

the Sister of Charity in her nightly supervision of the hospital, showering kindness and cheer wherever she goes; and because she is the epitome of every thing that is good; the ideal of everything we ever hope to attain in our profession; we dedicate the 1947

Caps and Capes to Sister Laurentia.

And I didn't get a letter!

Notice: Change

The line ends somewhere.

No time card?

Sigma Alpha Chi, honorary scholastic sorority, was organized in 1938, in order to provide an incentive for the students of the Charity Hospital School of Nursing to attain the highest scholastic standards, to stress the importance of good moral character, to encourage the rendition of scholastic service in the interests of the school, and suitably honor and reward talent properly nurtured, character highly developed, and service unselfishly given.

the uniform committee

The Uniform Committee is directed by Student Council, with its members appointed from the various classes. Its aim is to have every nurse a typical nurse. Above: Members of the Uniform Committee portray a "routine check-up".

t h e s t u d e n t c o u n c i l

We are fortunate at Charity in having our own Student Government with members elected by the Student Body. This year the Student Council has more than proved itself to be a government of the students, by the students, and for the students. Our appreciation sincerely goes to its members and moderator, Miss Welsh.

graduation

Sister Zita awards the Honor Pin to Mary F. Lawrence of the 8-7-44 class.

Ever memorable Graduation Day occurred twice this year at Charity. On the night of January 22, 1947, fifty-six students of the 8-7-44 class assembled for their commencement program. Honors were awarded to Mary F. Lawrence and Rosemary Bertrand. Similar exercises were held for forty-four members of the 2-5-45 class on July 2, 1947, with honors given to Eunice Pellissier and Helen Percy.

Dr. Daly congratulates Eunice Pellissier of the 2-5-45 class as she receives the Honor Pin.

THE END OF A NURSE'S DAY

Seven o'clock and the nurse's work
Was done for another day
She heaved a sort of a tired sigh
And put the charts away.

Then sat for a moment and bowed her head
Over the little white desk,
"I wonder," she said to herself, "after all,
Am I really doing my best?"

Perhaps I could have begun the day
With a brighter cheerier smile
And answered the bells with a "right away",
Instead of "after a while".

And I might have refrained from that halfway frown,
Although I was busy then,
When that frail little body with pale blue eyes
Kept ringing again and again.

And I might have listened with sweeter grace
To the story of six's woes!
She may be suffering more perhaps—
More than anyone knows.

And I might have spoken a kindlier word
To the heart of that restless boy,
And stopped a moment to help him find
The missing part of his toy.

Or perhaps the patient in eighteen A
Just needed a gentler touch,
There are lots of things I might have done
And it wouldn't have taken much.

She sighed again and brushed a tear
Then whispered praying low,
"Oh God, how can you accept this day
When it has been lacking so."

Then God looked down on the heart, the sigh,
And saw that shining tear
Then sent the angel messenger to Whisper in the ear, —

Perhaps you could have done better today,
But oh, the Omnipotent One,
Seeing your faults doesn't forget
The beautiful things you've done.

He knows, little nurse, that you love your work
In this big house of sorrow,
So gladly forgives the lack of today
For you will do better tomorrow.

And the nurse looked up with the tenderest smile
"Tomorrow I'll make it right",
Then added a note in the order book,
"Be good to them tonight".
